

of unsullied holiness, and uninterrupted happiness. Nay, this must be the very object of his dispensations like these, to summon the mind to the contemplation of its superior good, and to attract the heart towards the centre of every true affection, the supreme object of love and adoration to every holy being. Then let these things come in their time. They come not by chance. Inspiration eloquently teaches us that they "come not of the dust nor spring out of the ground." It tells us that "Life is a vapor." How many parents can attest it!

"She came and passed. Can we forget,
How we, whose hearts had hailed her birth,
Ere four autumnal suns have set,
Consigned her to her Mother Earth?
Joys and their memory pass away,
But griefs are deeper ploughed than they!"

Heaven will equalize all! The soul that breathes its aspirations for such perfection, can never rejoice amiss what Heaven sends. A FATHER.

MARRIED—On the 12th inst. by W. E. Daney Esq. Mr. James Benton to Miss Nancy Patton, all of this county.

When first for thee my passions grew,
Sweet Nanci, Nanci Patton—
I lov'd thee much: oft swore 'twas true,
When thou on my knee sat chatting.

Thanks to my stars thou'rt now my mine—
And cursed be all relents
In Dinting—Patting—
And kiss our sweet Nanci

and enemy to violence. But he is also known as a man of courage and nice honor; never seeking a difference, and a peace maker between others.—When a real affront is given, he sees that it is righted. He has had his single combat. While in Havana, many years since, a Spanish gentleman questioned in his presence the soundness of American courage. Mr. Bowie declared himself to be a native of the United States; the Spanish gentleman acerbated his doubts; Mr. Bowie threw down the glove,—knives were selected. Mr. Bowie desired that their feet might be shackled; the allusion was understood, and the request was acceded to.—Mr. Bowie lives."

South-Western Journal.

THE extensive and growing interest of the Southwest, its moral and social improvement, and its increasing literary and scientific demands, have awakened attention to the fact that in this highly important portion of our country there is no journal or paper exclusively devoted to literature and science, advocating the doctrines of no party.

Feeling the necessity of such a paper, the Jefferson College and Washington Lyceum have commenced the publication of a periodical entitled "The South-Western Journal," to be devoted to literature and science, and all subjects interesting to the general public.

It is published monthly, in the city of Nashville, in small quarto pages, on fine paper, in a good envelope, so that it may be sent by distance without injury.

HOLLY SPRINGS MONEY

JOHN C. HILL, & CO.

HAVING disposed of their stock of goods, to Messrs. Dill, Bangh, & Co. whom we take pleasure in recommending to our old friends, and anxious to close the concern immediately, they therefore request all persons indebted to them for the years 1836 and '7; to call and close their accounts. We will receive Real Estate Holly Springs money in payment. John C. Hill may be found at the old stand, on the corner, ready for making settlements, either by cash or by note. We wish to close the business done since the first of January, 1838, by note.

P. S. We return our sincere thanks to our customers for their liberal patronage, and hope they will not be backward in coming forward and making settlement. JOHN C. HILL & CO. Holly Springs, June 15, 1838-n14-1f.

Gin Manufactury.

NO PERFORMANCE, NO PAY!

THE undersigned begs leave to inform his friends and customers, that he is permanently located in the town of Wyatt, where he still continues to carry on the Gin Manufactury and repairing business, in all its various branches. He manufactures no other Gins only that of the very best English polished cast-iron plates he also fronts his ribs where the saws pass through, with hardened polished steel, that is moveable at any time, which resists the friction or wearing of them, at least ten to one, to that of iron. Persons wishing to purchase a first rate gin, would do well to give him a call, and examine for themselves. He is determined to make no gins that will not be a credit to the business of gin making.

For further information, he refers to former purchasers, to wit:

GREEN D. BOLLS, La Fayette county.
COL. J. P. JONES, Pontotoc county.
J. FROCKNER, Marshall county.
E. F. MCGEEHEE, Panola county.
JOHN BELL, Yallobusha county.
CARLAND ANDERSON, W. COPAGE,
SAM D. & JASON WILSON, N. B. If any person purchases a gin of him, and it does not fully come up to the expectations of the purchaser, he is at the liberty of returning it and purchasing another of any other Gin maker in the west at his expense. Any person who may favor him with an order for a Gin, it will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.

VARIETY & FANCY STORE,

Gold and Silver Smithing, &c.

JOHN STERLING respectfully informs his friends and acquaintances, and the public in general, that he has, since the late fire in Holly Springs, rebuilt and finished off, in handsome style, a new and convenient shop, one door east of the northeast corner of the public square, at the sign of the golden watch, where he offers for sale the most extensive assortment of new Fancy and useful articles, of all descriptions to be found in the place.—Many of these articles, as regards quality, pattern, &c., can be found no where else, and the prices at which they are offered, are so unappreciably low they cannot fail to give satisfaction.

Among them will be found, a handsome assortment of Diamond Breast Pins, Ear Rings, Finger Ring &c. &c. &c.

Also, Watch-guards, Keys, Chains and Seals; musical instruments, Perfume Boxes, Ladies' Work Boxes, Mantle Ornaments. Gold and Silver Watches, of all kinds; Penknives, Razors, Combs; Silver and common table and tea-spoons, together with many other articles not here mentioned.

In addition to the above, he has also on hand, a splendid assortment of articles suitable for self-defence.

Watch and Clock Repairing.

He would here state that, having recently employed an experienced workman, the public may rest assured, that all kinds of repairing in his line will be done on the shortest notice, and warranted for the term of twelve months. He has now on hand, a good assortment of main springs, chronometers and every utensil necessary for the repair of all kinds of Silversmithing.
